VIRGINIA NEWS.

RICHMOND, Sept. 30.—When the case of Sergeant Lee, charged with larceny of the public funds by false pretences, was called last evening, the police justice stated that the prosecution was ready to proceed with the examination, but the counsel for the accused asked for a continuance until Thursday, October 7th, which, after some discussion, was agreed to and the prisoner was committed to jail. The police justice again refusing to bail him, a writ of habeas corpus was immediately obtained by Sergeant Lee, and he was taken before Judge Fitzhugh, who admitted him to bail in $2,500.

The captain, second mate and one seaman of the Garger were lost on Tabasco bar previous to that date.

Garfield made a short speech expressing sympathy with aims and work of the organization which the committee represented.

General Hampton left for home on the evening train. A most fresh and cordial greeting was given them by General Hancock.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Herald's San Francisco special furnishes a card signed by Senator Jones, of Nevada, declaring that the statement that he had left the republican party was a stupid "invention of the enemy." He says he never was a more ardent believer in republican principles and supporter of republican candidates than now.

VIRGINIA'S POPULATION.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 30.—The Daily Dispatch to-day publishes a complete tabulated statement by counties, cities and towns, of the result of the census in Virginia. So far as the population is concerned, the aggregate figures show it to be 1,509,335 in 1880 against 1,225,163 in 1870, being an increase during the last decade of 284,172, or more than 23 per cent.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 30.—On Wednesday night last, a negro employed on the St. John's and Lake Eustis railroad killed his boss, a white man. The negro was arrested and carried to Fort Mason. At night a band of men overpowered the guard, took the negro out and lynched him.

FOREIGN.

THE FRANKLIN EXPEDITION.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—A cable special from London says: The Schwatka discoveries of the Jeannette expedition and polar matters generally, continue to be leading topics of discussion in English journals. Among the latest contributions to literature of this subject is his letter from Commander Cheyne in reply to an article in the Standard a few days ago, in which that journal questioned the taste of bringing home the remains of Lieutenant Irving, of the Franklin expedition. He (Cheyne) expressed his satisfaction that the bones of that officer have been brought back by Lieut. Schwatka, and thinks that when they arrive in England "it will be necessary to hold an inquest in order to ascertain the cause of his death. In the event of such inquiry being held he declares he will reiterate the charge against the contractor who furnished the supplies and whom he accuses of the murder of the Franklin party. Cheyne has been making these charges, lectures and addresses since the return of the expedition; but the papers here have usually left out name of the contractor, fearing action for libel. His charges against the contractor are of a most startling character. "It was not the arctic regions that Franklin's men to the next world," says Cheyne, "they were murdered by the contractor who supplied the expedition with preserved meats." The same contractor supplied Sir James Ross' expedition, and the tins labelled "beef and mutton" contained nothing but oil. Some of the tins contained nothing but big knuckles of bone. Everything belonging to the animal was put into tins except the horns, hoofs and hides. The very entrails were there, and when they ate them they had to hold their noses, so that his party had been out another winter they would have starved. I have repeatedly in my lectures throughout England denounced this contractor as a murderer and dared him to bring action for libel. I should be glad to have him do so, for I could establish the truth of what I say.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The republicans of the 13th district to-day nominated Jno. H. Hetcham for congress by acclamation.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Sept. 30.—At the democratic convention of the 20th district, to-day Judge Hilton was nominated for congress.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The republicans of the 30th congressional district have nominated Hon. John Van Voorhis for congress.

GREAT BUSINESS ACTIVITY.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The clearings of the associated banks of Chicago for the month of September were $142,000,000 or $28,000,000 greater than for September, 1879. The clearings for nine months, ending with September, were $1,195,000,000, an increase compared with the same period last year of $348,000,000. Business is lively in every branch and department and prospects for commercial activity during the fall are more favorable than usual during presidential campaigns.

ROUTING VICTORIA'S BAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Tucson, Arizona, says: Two miners report that General Carr had a fight with a small party of Victoria's band, eighteen in number, in Hatchet mountains, and killed them all.

A dispatch from Roseburg, Oregon, says: The president and party arrived here yesterday at 4:30 p. m. and will proceed directly to Portland.

EARLY FROST.

ORANGE, Va., Sept. 30.—Frost fell in Piedmont, West Virginia, last night, nearly a month earlier than usual. Its severity is not believed to be sufficient to injure materially the tobacco and other crops.

A TREBLE SHOOTING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Portland, Oregon, says: A shooting affray took place at Wapinitia, Washington Territory, in which Dink Spawm was killed, John Spawm shot through the legs, and David Carroll shot through the lungs and not expected to live.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 30.—Suits were filed yesterday by the city authorities against J. R. Alce, Gautreaux and his associates for about one hundred and twelve thousand dollars. Collector Barger is very ill with dengue.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 30.—The grand jury of St. Johns county have been investigating the alleged robbery of trunks and bodies, which came ashore from the wreck of the City of Vera Cruz, and have found true bills against Edward Moody and E. Allen, the latter a hotel keeper at Montezuma.

STARKVILLE, MASS., Sept. 30.—Calvin Bell was accidentally caught in the machinery of a saw mill to-day and was instantly killed.

THE SITUATION IN THE EAST.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A Paris correspondent of the Times telegraphed last night as follows: Instructions to the French admiral not to fire a shot in the event of the bombardment of Duligno have not been plainly avowed until this evening. They are justified on the ground that the constitution debars the president from declaring war without the assent of the chambers. This, evidently an afterthought, was adopted in deference to the lately manifested repugnance of the public to French intervention in the eastern question. The Times in its leading editorial says if France draws back from giving reality to the demonstration, the power of the powers is for the present at an end. The ridicule of having sailed to sea again, will attach in the first instance to France, but other powers must take their share of it. They have been misled by France, and have been induced to commit themselves to a game of bluff which has not succeeded, and could not have been expected to succeed. Even a weaker power than Turkey might safely venture to snap her finger at the demonstration which is to bark but on no account to bite.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Reuters telegraph company from Berlin in reference to the reports of the abandonment of the naval demonstration, says: It is disclosed in well informed circles that no such intelligence has reached here. The incidents of Sultan addressing an appeal to the Emperor, William, occurred last week, and therefore before the Duligno question reached its present crisis. Germany in conjunction with all the powers adheres to protest against Peace and Peace.

Earl Granville, the foreign secretary, has been summoned to London from Balmoral in connection with foreign affairs.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—The emperor of Germany, in replying to an appeal made by the sultan, expressed his regret that the necessity for executing the treaty of Berlin, precludes separate action on his part.

FRENCH AFFAIRS.

BUCHAREST, Sept. 29.—Two hundred Greek volunteers have embarked at Galatz for Greece.

A dispatch from Bucharest to the Times says the idea of making Roumania a kingdom is again prominent here.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Julius Jacquemart, an eminent engraver, is dead.

Journalists say that the government is firmly resolved to maintain a reserved attitude on the Duligno question. The French command has been ordered to abstain from all hostility.

The thirty-ninth and last representation was made of the passion play at Oberammergau. It was held on the 26th, and thirty-five hundred persons were present.

It is stated in well informed circles that Baron Balsey d'Ancas, member of the chamber of deputies, has been appointed minister to Mexico.

AYOUB KHAN'S VICTORY.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Standard's correspondent at Candahar says it is a mistake to suppose that the country is completely pacified. Ayoub Khan's victory gave great impulse to fanaticism. The mollahs are everywhere preparing a fresh rising and arguing that the defeat of Ayoub Khan by General Roberts was owing to the reliance the Afghan leader placed on his regulars and their desertion at the critical moment.

TEXAN CATTLE FEVER.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Professor Brown has presented his report to the privy council on the Texan cattle fever, setting forth the opinions of American authorities in regard to the disease. He concludes by saying: "It is clear that the splenic fever of the cattle is not the same disease as the splenic fever prevalent in Great Britain."

LORD MAYOR MCARTHUR.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Mr. Wm. McArthur, member of the house of commons for Lambeth, was to-day elected lord mayor of London. Mr. McArthur is a liberal.

Knoxville & C. S. Railroad.

Nashville Banner, Wednesday: Mr. W. A. Gunn, engineer of the Knoxville and Southern railroad, was in the city yesterday. He reports the survey of the road completed, and now being put in shape by the finishing of maps, etc. The road will be forty-two miles in length, due east and west, connecting Knoxville with the Southern railroad, and opening to the latter a fine business section of country, and eventually connecting with the Knoxville and Charleston railroad, and forming a "short-line" to Charleston. The business men of Knoxville, through Mr. Gunn, reported a season of unwonted activity.

Fine Apples, Nash's Seedlings.

We are under obligations to our clever old friend, Hon. M. V. Nash, of Union county, for some samples of extra fine apples raised by him, known as "Nash's Seedling." They are decidedly the best eating apple we have seen. Mr. Nash has only one tree of them bearing, which grew up spontaneously. It never fails, and he estimates it is worth ten dollars every season. He is introducing the apple quite extensively through East Tennessee.

Religious.

The Services at the First Baptist church last night consisted of a powerful sermon from Rev. Dr. Harrison and an earnest exhortation from the pastor. The interest in the exercises is wonderfully maintained. There will be two meetings to-day—at 4 and 7:30, p. m.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

Over Six Hundred Entries the First Day.

The Display Maintains the Standard of Former Exhibitions.

JONESBORO, Sept. 29, 1880. MR. EDITOR: To-day, Wednesday, commenced the ninth annual exhibition at Washington County Agricultural and Mechanical society. At an early hour, under a genial sky, came the thronging multitude—foot, on horseback and by means of conveyance. North Carolina and south Virginia, as well as all the counties of East Tennessee, were represented by the number present.

Secretary Jas. D. Slemons was kept constantly busy during the day making entries, and the number and variety of articles and live stock will be largely increased by the exhibition of others that will be on the grounds to-morrow.

ON EXHIBITION

is almost every product of the agricultural and mechanical that certify to the enterprise and industry of a people, and the strength and fertility of our soil. Until the entries are closed we will forbear to particularize, but in the domestic, housewifery, floral and fine art department, superintended mainly by the ladies, we note a characteristic tasteful arrangement. The large exhibit of fine thoroughbred hogs, sheep, horses and cattle is not as yet complete. The display in the mechanical line, in its quality and workmanship, nears perfection, and is a striking argument in favor of the encouragement of home manufactures.

OVER SIX HUNDRED ENTRIES have been made, consequently no time could be spared to-day for the repairing and arrangement of animals and articles. To-morrow an interesting program of the miscellaneous department and speed ring will be transacted. To except the number of people present at the centennial year of Jonesboro, the fair will equal any former exhibition in all respects.

A DOUBLE WEDDING Married, in Jonesboro, at the residence of Mr. Jos. A. February on Wednesday, Sept. 29, at 7 o'clock p. m., by Rev. J. D. Robinson, Mr. Wm. G. Archer and Miss Henrietta February. At the same time, at the same place, the above named divine officiating, Mr. Walker and Miss Florence Dester.

The hymenal ceremonies over, the happy couple, together with their relatives and many invited guests, were served to a daintful and sumptuous repast of delicacies. "For."

What it Signifies.

MR. EDITOR: The democrats, following the good example of the republicans, have hung up a splendid banner across Gay street, in this city. The design is quite elaborate and does credit to the good taste of those who made it. But by one of those singular fatalities, which seem to attend so many of the works of the democracy, the arrangement of the figures on this banner produces an effect which is decidedly appropriate and very correctly symbolizes the present political situation.

The center piece is a splendid American eagle, that noble bird which the democrats tried so hard to throttle. The eagle has turned his back on Hancock, while he glares firmly and defiantly at English as if determined that that corsair should never get a mortgage on the real estate under his protection.

THE FIGHT GOES BRAVELY ON.

Pettibone Vanguishes Taylor at Blountville and Arcadia.

MR. EDITOR: On Monday Maj. Pettibone opened the discussion at Blountville. He made the usual points on Taylor and democratic principles in general; showing that democracy was for the wrong. The Major challenged Taylor to deny that he was for Wright for governor and dared him to admit that he was for Hancock for president. Bob was silent as the grave. He said I have friends that are for Garfield and others for Hancock, I have friends for Wilson, and others for Wright and for Hawkins, and I will not hurt any feelings by saying who I am for. I am not around hurting feelings. "Major" he says, "I am unani-mously for Bob for Congress." But the democrats say the know he is a democrat and that he will go for the policy of democracy. Republicans, do not be deceived. You certainly have as much common sense as the average democrat.

Maj. Pettibone showed that Robt. Taylor and W. D. Haynes were the wet nurses of the republican party. That Mr. Haynes had leased the office and press of the Greenville News to revive the Jonesboro Times, which Bob and Steve Bovell say is a republican sheet. But there is nothing of the kind. "Times" save the name. It has neither type, office, paper, nor subscribers; yet this W. D. Haynes loves the republican party so well that he is around reviving its defunct sheets. I tell you republicans are getting republican principles and doctrines through. Wm. D. Haynes, chairman of the democratic party, and that drunken Steve Bovell, is like Doll Benedict who was about to sail for California. He said he had to take a berth behind three Irishmen and get his hair through a Dutchman and wig.

At Arcadia the crowd was large, and largely republican. Pettibone forced Taylor to admit that he was a democrat and that he had been one. But he did not tell who he is for, or what he is for.

Pettibone is gaining ground, and his majority will not be less than 100 votes more from Rogersville. ALEXIS.

Worthless Stuff.

Not so fast my friend; if you could see the strong, healthy, blooming men, woman and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death, by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say, "Glorious and invaluable remedy." See another column.—Philadelphia Press.

Another new Stiff Hat received at Herbert W. Hall's.

Grand Exhibition of Stock.

The Knox County Fair association will offer liberal premiums for exhibition of all kinds of stock and valuable purses for trials of speed at the fair meeting, to be held at the old fair grounds, near Knoxville, Wednesday and Thursday, October 27th and 28th, 1880. The farmers of East Tennessee can go to work and put their horses, mules and cattle in condition with the assurance that they can compete for liberal premiums, which will be paid in gold. The track will be in excellent condition, and ample stable room will be provided for all stock from a distance. A commodious grand stand has been erected, and will seat 1,500 persons. There is no reason why this meeting should not be made a great success. The details have been entrusted to competent officers, who will leave nothing undone which will contribute to the success of the enterprise. Nearly $2,000 in gold will be offered in premiums and purses. This should bring competition from every county in East Tennessee, and the exhibition will bring to Knoxville not less than 10,000 visitors. No entrance fee will be charged exhibitors of stock, but an entrance fee of ten per cent. will be charged all entries in the speed ring. The premium lists will be published in the city papers, daily and weekly, in a few days. A committee of gentlemen will wait upon our business men to-day and ask contributions to aid in completing arrangements. We hope all will respond liberally.

New Democratic Banner.

The democrats put out their new banner yesterday, on which they have been engaged for some time. It is stretched across Gay street from the McKinney block—democratic headquarters—to the Carls building. It shows off well and is a fine piece of work. Its dimensions are about 30 by 40 feet. Each corner is furnished with a portrait, Hancock, English, Wright and Williams, respectively, and in addition to these the names of Henderson, Corrick and McKinney, the county ticket.

A very large eagle occupies the center. He looks down what out of place, however, for the eagle is not a democratic bird. The banner is all home made, and cost, we understand, about $110, though that is at reduced charges. The portraits were painted by Mr. Lloyd Branson, the eagle by Mr. Branson and Major L. A. Graiz, the net by Lewis Rucker, and the painting and lettering by Charley Havelly, who also originated the design. It reflects credit on the taste and skill of all.

Our democratic friends are really indebted, however, to the republicans for so fine a banner. As soon as the handsome Garfield and Arthur banner was procured, they set to work to eclipse it. If they will keep their eyes skinned, they may yet see something to dazzle them, before the campaign is over.

Almost a Fire.

The residence of Mr. John Gates, on North Broad street, opposite Gray cemetery ran a narrow risk of being burned yesterday morning, about breakfast time. A fire had been kindled in a stove in one of the front rooms and was left with no one in the room. Some kindling wood was also left behind and in close proximity to the stove, and caught fire from which the room was soon filled with the smoke and the fire was rapidly kindling. Fortunately, however, it was discovered and extinguished, before any great damage was done. Mr. Gates holds policy for $2,500 in the Knoxville Fire Insurance company, and whatever damage there is will be made good.

SYMPTOMS.—Slight pain in the side, the skin and eyes assume a thick yellow color, digestion is impaired, an unpleasant sinking sensation at the pit of the stomach is experienced, the bowels are irregular, the mind fretful, the memory weakened, sometimes a slight cough, coldness of the hands and feet, sometimes loss of appetite and at others unnatural craving for food, dizziness, depressed spirits, feeling of uncertainty, of having left something undone but can't tell what it is. Take Simmons Liver Regulator; it will remove all these feelings and make you well.

SAVED FROM THE GRAVE.—"You will please let it be known to the world that your Regulator has saved me from the grave. I have suffered for many years with Indigestion and Liver Complaint, and took everything that was recommended to me without any relief, until I tried Simmons Liver Regulator; it has cured me entirely. Recommend it to the human race." J. U. BURKETT.
